

Job Position Title: Application Developer ConsultantLocation: Superior Consulting Services Corporate Office*Classification: Exempt

The Application Developer Consultant shall professionally perform computer programming, software development, systems analysis, systems development, professional engineering, consulting, technical writing or other specialized technical work as directed for SCS and our clients using his or her own discretion and independent judgment.

Duties

- Develops basic and detailed computer program specifications.
- Ensures that expected software application performance levels are achieved.
- Designs, codes, tests, debugs, documents, maintains, and modifies computer programs of high complexity, significance, and risk.
- Assists and or leads technical staff and clients to investigate, analyze, and resolve complex technical problems.
- Identifies and manages computer, system and software interfaces, service levels, standards, and configurations.
- Works independently to ascertain system integration, productivity and problems; then formulates and, at times, implements response to identified issue.
- Demonstrates good understanding of the business needs driving the projects.
- Develops understanding of client needs through own initiative to engage in detailed communications, meetings, and correspondence with client and SCS.
- Expands knowledge and skills by attending classes and /or performing self-study.
- Conveys project status effectively using status reports and other verbal and written communication.
- Assists with other duties as requested.

Knowledge and Skills (technical and non-technical)

- Good oral and written communication skills.
- Microsoft industry certification
- Microsoft user layer experience – AJAX / Silverlight / WPF
- Experience designing applications in a business analysis role
- Graphic design skills and experience
- SharePoint development experience
- Other database experience – Oracle, MySQL
- Development interface experience with ERP systems
- Displays confidence to design and deliver technology solutions
- Willing to share knowledge freely
- Self-motivated and good work ethic
- Ability to work independently on matters of significance
- Ability to work as a team player
- Ability to understand business practices and business information and to communicate effectively with both business people and technical staff

Education and Work Experience

- Bachelor's degree in Computer Science or MIS
- Consulting experience
- .Net Development Experience (ASP.Net, C#.net)
- Database experience - preferably using MS SQL Server. Experience with TSQL, table design, stored procedures functions
- Ability and track record of learning new tools and technologies

Relevant Certifications (highly desired)

- Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist / Professional Developer – Windows or Web
- Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist / Professional Developer – SQL Server
- Microsoft Certified Technology Specialist / Professional Developer – .NET Framework